St. James's, November 2.

THE following Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Church and Dioceſe of Hereford, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Hereford, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Church and Dioceſe of Hereford.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean, Canons, Prebendaries, and other Members of the Cathedral Church, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Hereford, willing to lay hold of every Opportunity of teſtifying our ſincere Zeal for the Honour of God and the Welfare of our Country, among the reſt of your Majeſty's faithful People, do moſt humbly preſume to congratulate your Majeſty upon the late Succeſs of your Arms in America, by the taking of Cape Breton; and further, upon your Majeſty's ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions at this critical Seaſon, when a rebellious Inſurrection is actually begun at Home, and hoſtile Invaſions are daily expected from Abroad, in Favour of an abjur'd popiſh Pretender; one who is bent upon the utter Extirpation of our moſt pure Religion, our unparalleled Liberty, and Enjoyment of every Thing that is valuable to reaſonable Men, under your Majeſty's moſt mild and auſpicious Protection, in order to inforce and entail upon us Slavery, and the Idolatrous Superſtition of Rome, by the arbitrary and cruel Maxims of Paris and Madrid.

With Hearts full of Gratitude for our long Enjoyment of the ineſtimable Bleſſings before mentioned, of a thorough Senſe and Conviction of our preſent Poſſeſſion of them, and of Hope that we, and our Poſterity to lateſt Generations, may yet continue to enjoy them, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty (as we have all of us once; and moſt of us again and again ſworn) that we will ever bear faithful and true Allegiance to your Majeſty, your Heirs and lawful Succeſſors; and do all that lieth in our Power to aſſiſt and defend your Majeſty againſt the malicious and traiterous Deſigns of all your Enemies both foreign and domeſtick; and more eſpecially at this Time, againſt the inſolent Attempts of an abjured popiſh Pretender, and all his perfidious Abettors.

In the mean Time we will continually and earneſtly beſeech the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, that your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long and proſperous.

The following Addreſs and Aſſociation of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Devon, have been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Orford, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs and Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

At the Caſtle of Exon, October 8, 1745.

To the King.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal and obedient Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Devon, have with great Impatience waited for this firſt Opportunity of a publick Meeting, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions, and on the taking of Cape Breton in North America by your Majeſty's Arms.

We beg Leave humbly to repreſent to your Majeſty, that this very valuable Acquiſition, beſides the the Satisfaction it has afforded your Subjects in general, proves in a more particular Manner agreeable to the Inhabitants of this Part of your Kingdom, from whence a conſiderable Trade has been long carried on in the Fiſhery of Newfoundland. We have now a Proſpect of extending and improving that profitable Branch of Commerce, and return your Majeſty our Thanks, with an Affection and Warmth ſuitable to the Importance of ſo great a Benefit.

But we are more eſpecially deſirous to lay Hold of the preſent Occaſion to expreſs to your Majeſty our utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of that wicked and unnatural Rebellion, which is now carried on in North Britain, contrived and ſupported by France and Spain, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to the Crown of theſe Realms.

When on the one Hand we conſider your Majeſty in the Character you have hitherto conſtantly ſuſtained, that of Guardian and Protector of the Proteſtant Religion and Liberties of Europe; and, on the contrary, when we reflect what Princes have ever acted as the Invaders and Subverters of the Religious and Civil Rights of Mankind; we are leſs ſurprized at any Endeavours from Abroad to diſturb the Tranquillity of your Majeſty's Government; but it is with Grief and Aſtoniſhment that we obſerve ſome of your Majeſty's Subjects (how few and inconſiderable ſoever) engaged in ſo monſtrous and deſperate an Attempt; an Attempt, which, in Diſgrace to the firſt Principles of human Nature itſelf, can be no other than a Rebellion for Slavery.

We hereby aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power and Abilities, ſtand by, aſſiſt and ſupport your Majeſty, and your Royal Family, againſt all your Enemies whatſoever, agreeable to this our Aſſociation, which we humbly pray your Majeſty to accept.

We cannot but look upon it as a moſt happy Circumſtance, that the main Body of your People, of all Degrees and Orders whatſoever, ſhould be voluntarily riſing up at once (as they now actually are) in Defence of your Majeſty's juſt Rights, thereby declaring, that they know of no Intereſts of their own, ſeparate and diſtinct from thoſe of your Majeſty.

We doubt not but that the Divine Providence, which has more than once reſcued theſe Kingdoms from Popery and arbitrary Power, will ſtrengthen your Majeſty's Hands to the ſubduing of all your Enemies both domeſtick and foreign; and that the ſame Spirit of Liberty, which gave Birth to our Conſtitution, will exert itſelf in the preſerving to us that ineſtimable Bleſſing.

The Aſſociation.

WHEHEAS there is a moſt wicked and unnatural Rebellion carried on in North Britain by popiſh and perjured Traytors, and likely to be ſupported by an Invaſion from Abroad, againſt his moſt ſacred Majeſty, in order to place a popiſh Pretender on the Throne of theſe Nations, to the utter Subverſion of our Religion, Laws and Liberties;

We the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Devon, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, do heartily, ſincerely, and ſolemnly profeſs, teſtify, and declare, that his Majeſty King George the Second is rightful and lawful King of Great Britain and Ireland, and of all the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging: And we do mutually promiſe and engage to ſtand by and aſſiſt each other, to the utmoſt of our Power, in the Support and Defence of his Majeſty's Perſon, Title and Government, againſt the ſaid Pretender to his Majeſty's Crown, and in Support of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in his Majeſty's Royal Houſe, as the ſame ſtands by Law eſtabliſhed.

And whereas many Eſtates in this County are held by Leaſes for Lives, abſolute or for Years determinable upon Lives; Now, in order for the further Encouragement of our Tenants to expoſe themſelves in Defence of their Country, if any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall inliſt or be inliſted in any Regiment or Troop raiſed for this preſent Service, by vertue of this Aſſociation, or of any Subſcription thereon, by whoſe Life or Lives any of our Eſtates are or ſhall be held, ſhall, in any Part of Great Britain, within Six Months from the Date hereof, happen to be killed, or receive any Wound or Maim (of which he or they ſhall die within Six Months then next after) in ſuch Service againſt his Majeſty's Enemies foreign or domeſtick; we do hereby mutually promiſe and engage, that we will waive our Claims to any Herriots on Account thereof; and will alſo, within two Months next after ſuch Deaths, at the Requeſt of the Parties reſpectively intereſted therein, without any Fine or Conſideration, grant a new Leaſe or Leaſes, or do ſuch other Acts as ſhall be requiſite for the Renewal or filling up ſuch Eſtates, to as that our ſeveral Leſſees ſhall have the like Intereſts in their ſeveral Eſtates, as they would have had, if the Perſons, on whoſe Lives they held their Eſtates, had not engaged in ſuch publick Service.

The following Addreſs and Aſſociation of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk, have been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Hobart, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which

Addreſs

Addreſs and Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your faithful Subjects of this County, as a Teſtimony of our Affection and zealous Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family and Government, and of our utter Abhorrence of the wicked and deteſtable Attempt in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, have this Day, with an unanimous Concurrence, enter'd into a ſolemn Aſſociation, which we beg Leave moſt humbly to lay before your Majeſty.

An Aſſociation of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Norfolk.

WHereas there is now a horrid and an unnatural Rebellion, formed and carried on by Papiſts and other wicked and traiterous Perſons, countenanced and ſupported by the ancient and implacable Enemies of our Country, with Intent to dethrone his Majeſty King George, to ſubvert our Religion and Liberty, and to place the Crown of Great-Britain on the Head of a popiſh Pretender, who muſt, for his own Safety, be dependant on France and Rome; We whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, being fully convinced, that an Union of Hearts and Forces will greatly conduce to his Majeſty's Safety, and the Protection of our Country, do voluntarily and firmly bind ourſelves, every one of us the one to the other, jointly and ſeverally, in the Bond of one loyal Society, and do hereby ſolemnly promiſe, that with our Bodies, Lives and Eſtates, we and every of us will ſtand by and aſſiſt each other, in the Support and Defence of his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government; and will, as well with Force of Arms, as by all other lawful Means, withſtand the ſaid popiſh Pretender and Traytors, and all Manner of Perſons and their Abettors, who ſhall attempt, act, council or conſent to any Thing that ſhall tend to the Harm of his Majeſty King George, or any of his Royal Family. All which we will faithfully perform, according to the plain Senſe and Meaning of the above-written Inſtrument, as we hope for Favour from Almighty God, and Eſteem amongſt good Men.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Pontefract, has been preſented to his Majeſty by George Morton Pitt, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Pontefract.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's truly dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of your ancient Borough of Pontefract, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are moſt ſincerely well affected to your Royal Perſon and Government; that we will moſt chearfully and readily do our utmoſt in the Defence of both againſt your Majeſty's moſt ungrateful Subjects the Rebels in the North, the popiſh Pretender and all his Adherents; and that we have the greateſt Abhorrence of them and their Proceedings, and of all who have occaſioned our preſent Troubles.

We are truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's moſt wiſe and juſt Government: We rejoice that the moſt inveterate of your Enemies cannot point out the leaſt Violation or Oppreſſion of our happy Conſtitution during your Majeſty's Reign, or that of your Royal Father our late Sovereign; and we glory that our Actions have been conſiſtent with theſe our publick Profeſſions to your Majeſty, and are certain, that our future Conduct will have your Majeſty's Approbation, as we have nothing more at Heart, than preſerving the Crown of theſe Realms in your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and illuſtrious Houſe, upon which all that is really dear and valuable to us and our Poſterity, abſolutely depends.

Given under our Common Seal the Seventh Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Mayor Elect, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Repreſentatives in Parliament, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy, Gentry, and principal Traders and Inhabitants of the Borough and Pariſh of Barnſtable in the County of Devon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Orford, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Mayor Elect, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Repreſentatives ſentatives in Parliament, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy, Gentry, and principal Traders and Inhabitants of the Borough and Pariſh of Barnſtable in the County of Devon, in the Guildhall aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, &c. beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions, on the Succeſs of your unwearied Endeavours for the Support of the Common Cauſe, and of your Majeſty's Arms at Cape Breton; a Place of the utmoſt Importance to the Trade, the Riches, and Welfare of this Nation.

Senſible of that Happineſs we enjoy under the beſt of Kings, under your Majeſty's mild and prudent Adminiſtration, we cannot enough expreſs our Abhorrence of all Endeavours to introduce a Foreign Power deſtructive of our Laws, our Liberty, and our Property, and of the Intereſt and Right of your Majeſty, their Guardian and Protector.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unfeigned Zeal and Attachment for your ſacred Perſon and Government, of our full Reſolution to oppoſe in every Reſpect, and with all our Power, all ſuch Schemes and Enterprizes which tend to deſtroy them.

May the Almighty, in whoſe Hands are the Hearts of Kings, continue to inſpire you with a Love for univerſal Liberty, to crown all your Endeavours with Succeſs, both at Home and Abroad: May your Reign be long and glorious over a free and loyal People: May your Royal Iſſue ever ſit upon the Throne, and may they ever imitate your great and glorious Example, in perſonally fighting for the Liberties of Europe Abroad, and in protecting thoſe of their People at Home, in ſupporting of Trade, which is the grand Support of this Nation, and in doing every Thing which makes your Majeſty the Envy of other Nations, and the Glory and Delight of your own.

The following Addreſs of the Admiral, Captains and Officers of the Squadron of his Majeſty's Ships in Torbay, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sandwich, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Admiral, Captains, and Officers of the Squadron of his Majeſty's Ships in Torbay.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Admiral, Captains, and Officers of a Squadron of your Majeſty's Ships now in Torbay, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our Zeal and Fidelity in this Conjuncture, when with the utmoſt Indignation we ſee your Dominions invaded, and Part of your Subjects deluded into a Rebellion by a popiſh and abjured Pretender. And as we cannot by any Means be more firmly bound, than we already are by our repeated Oaths, to defend with our Lives your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, on the Preſervation of which our Religion, Laws, and Liberties depend; we beg Leave to aſſure you, Sir, that we are likewiſe willing to do the ſame with our Fortunes to the utmoſt of our Abilities; and though being employ'd at Sea has prevented us joining in thoſe Tenders that have been already made by the Officers in your Royal Navy, as a Proof of their Zeal and Loyalty, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our Readineſs and Deſire to concur therein.

We beg Leave to ſubſcribe ourſelves, with the trueſt Zeal and Attachment,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace and Grand Jury of the County of Cornwall, having been tranſmitted by the Right Hon. the Lord Edgcumbe, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, aſſembled in Quarter Seſſions for the County of Cornwall, at Bodmin, the Eighth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord 1745. and of the Grand Jury then and there ſworn.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave, with Hearts full of Zeal, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and on the Succeſs of your Arms at Cape Breton; and to lay before you, our true Senſe of the Happineſs we enjoy, joy, under our glorious Conſtitution, and your Majeſty's juſt and mild Adminiſtration.

A pure Religion, free from Superſtition and Bigotry, and Laws calculated for the Preſervation of the Lives, Liberties and Properties of each Individual, as alſo a Prince who has made it his conſtant Care and Study to defend and ſupport them, are ſuch ineſtimable Advantages, that none but Perſons poſſeſſed with Madneſs, or ſomething worſe, can wiſh to change.

Therefore, Great Sir, permit us to aſſure you, that we ſhall, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, exert ourſelves, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, in the Defence of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, being fully convinced, that your Enemies are only ſuch, for your being ſo ſteady a Protector of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, againſt the moſt ſecret Machinations and open Violences of Papiſts, whoſe Religion is Idolatry, their Law an arbitrary and oppreſſive Power, and their Liberty Bondage.

To perpetuate the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and to prevent us from theſe deplorable Calamities, may that God, whom we adore in Sincerity and Pureneſs of Heart, preſerve the Diadem of theſe Kingdoms on the Head of your Royal Perſon and Poſterity, till Time ſhall be no more.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Corke, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Corke.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Corke, moſt heartily congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and on the important Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in America.

We cannot omit obſerving, with the higheſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction, that your Majeſty's Enemies are ſo grievouſly diſtreſſed by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and Vigour and Power of your Arms, that notwithſtanding they loudly boaſt of Conqueſts, they are neceſſitated to ſue for Peace.

The Succeſs of your generous Endeavours for the Liberty of Europe, by which you have ſo eminently contributed to give a powerful Head to the Empire, able and willing to controul the reſtleſs Ambition of the Houſe of Bourbon, fills all Hearts, that have a due Senſe of the Value of Freedom, with the greateſt Joy and Tranſport; and gives your faithful Subjects a new Occaſion of expreſſing their higheſt Gratitude to your Majeſty, for the unwearied Pains you have taken, to ſecure to lateſt Poſterity thoſe Rights and Privileges, which we have ever enjoyed, ſince we had the Happineſs of being governed by your moſt Excellent Majeſty.

With infinite Concern and Abhorrence we behold the baſe Ingratitude of ſome of your Majeſty's Subjects, ſtirr'd up by the dark Intrigues of your Majeſty's implacable Enemies, who reward your Majeſty's paternal Care of all your Subjects, by an unnatural Rebellion in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, whoſe Birth, Education, and Obligations, will ever render him incapable of ruling a People, accuſtomed to a long Enjoyment of Bleſſings under your Royal and illuſtrious Family.

May your Majeſty's Arms ſoon reduce theſe abandoned Wretches to a juſt Senſe of their Guilt; may their wicked Attempt only give a freſh Occaſion to the World to obſerve, that your Majeſty reigns in the Hearts of your grateful Proteſtant Subjects; may you ever be victorious over all your Enemies foreign and domeſtick; to effect which, our Perſons and Fortunes ſhall always be ready at your Majeſty's Command: May there never want one of your Majeſty's Deſcendants to govern theſe Kingdoms, in Spite of the avowed Malice and united Schemes of France, Spain, Rome, and the Pretender. And we your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects can wiſh no greater Happineſs for us or our Poſterity.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid City, this Twenty fourth Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five.

Copy of the Aſſociation entred into by the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, the 22d Day of October 1745.

WHEREAS a moſt wicked and unnatural Rebellion is raiſed in Scotland, in order to place a popiſh Pretender on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, to the Subverſion of our Religion, Laws and Liberties; we the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcibed, having an utter Abhorrence of ſuch an inſolent Attempt, a due Senſe of his Majeſty's paternal Care of, and Concern for the Preſervation of our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, and of his expoſing his Royal Perſon in Maintenance of the Liberties of Europe, do heartily, ſincerely and ſolemnly mutually promiſe and engage to unite, aſſociate, ſtand by, and, to the utmoſt of our Power, aſſiſt each other in Support and Defence of his Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion to the Crown in his Royal Houſe, againſt the Pretender and all his Adherents.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Chriſtchurch in the County of Southampton, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Edward Hooper, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Chriſtchurch in the County of Southampton.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion broke out in North Britain, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, ſent thither and ſupported by the moſt inveterate Enemies of the Religion, Liberties, and Commerce of your People; and to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Loyalty, and hearty Zeal to exert, at all Hazards, our utmoſt Endeavours for the Safety of your Royal Perſon and Government.

The Event of this deteſtable Enterprize will (we truſt in Divine Providence) ſpeedily demonſtrate to the World, that the free Spirit of this great Proteſtant Nation will ever bear down and fruſtrate all Deſigns of ſubjecting it to Popery and arbitrary Power; and that your People, from a due Senſe of the ineſtimable Bleſſings they enjoy under your auſpicious Reign, and the excellent Conſtitution of our Country, will effectually ſupport your Majeſty's Right to your Crown, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe.

We received with great Joy the News of your Majeſty's ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions; we beſeech your Majeſty to accept our Congratulations upon it; and upon the Succeſs of your Arms in the Reduction of Cape Breton; an Acquiſition of vaſt Importance in Point of Trade and maritime Power.

Permit us alſo to congratulate your Majeſty on the Election of an Emperor. This happy Effect of the wiſe Meaſures your Majeſty has taken, will, we doubt not, ſoon eſtabliſh firmly that Balance of Power on the Continent, upon the utter Subverſion of which (ſo long artfully, though hitherto vainly attempted) France ſeems to have founded her aſpiring Hopes of becoming able to obtain the Dominion of the Seas; after which indeed that perfidious Power might well promiſe herſelf the Accompliſhment of her inſolent, but favourite Syſtem, univerſal Empire.

May your Majeſty's Councils and Arms ever prove ſucceſsful to the Confuſion of all your Enemies, and to the perpetual Support of the Liberties of Europe, the Proteſtant Religion, and the Freedom of Trade, and Happineſs of your People, in whoſe Hearts and Affections may your Majeſty long and glorioufly reign ſecure.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newark upon Trent in the County of Nottingham.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of your Borough of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, do humbly approach your Majeſty, to aſſure you of our ſteady and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

We look upon the daring Attempt now made in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to your Crown, and to enſlave us and our Poſterity under a popiſh and arbitrary Government, with the higheſt Indignation. We are too ſenſible of our envied Happineſs in Church and State, owing, under God, to your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, not to ſacrifice our deareſt Intereſts in the Support and Preſervation of them. Animated by the glorious Example of our Anceſtors, (Inhabitants of this Town) eminently diſtinguiſhed in Hiſtory for a firm, conſtant and unſhaken Loyalty, we ſhall endeavour, in the great and juſt Cauſe of Liberty and Religion, to approve ourſelves worthy our Deſcent.

May the God of Heaven, infinitely wiſe, good and powerful, take you into His holy Care and Protection, and may He continue, to the lateſt of Times, the peaceable Enjoyment of the Crown of theſe Realms to your Majeſty, and your Royal Houſe.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Magiſtrates, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardneſs in the County of Devon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Walter Cary, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Magiſtrates, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardneſs in the County of Devon.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

RElegion and Liberty, the moſt valuable Bleſſings of Mankind, being fully enjoy'd in theſe Kingdoms, under our preſent happy Conſtitution, ſupported and adorned by your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government; We cannot (amidſt our Joy for your Majeſty's ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and the important Reduction of Cape Breton) but be fired with the warmeſt Indignation againſt thoſe who endeavour to bereave us of both, by an unnatural Rebellion at Home, and threatened Invaſion from Abroad, in Favour of an abjur'd Pretender, to the Introduction of Popery and arbitrary Power amongſt us.

But amidſt theſe audacious Attempts upon every Thing that is dear to us, we cannot but obſerve too, with the moſt ſenſible Pleaſure and Satisfaction, all Orders and Degrees, and all Denominations of Men, uniting in a forward Zeal, noble Reſolutions and vigorous Aſſociations, in Defence and Support of your moſt ſacred Majeſty and illuſtrious Houſe. And humbly crave Leave, Liege Lord, to join in our moſt ſolemn Aſſurances of Fidelity and Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and Readineſs to contribute our utmoſt Efforts to defeat the Deſigns of all your Enemies, whether foreign or domeſtick. And May the Bleſſing of God on your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies, enable you ſpeedily to quell the Spirit of Faction and Rebellion; to reduce the Combined Force of France and Spain; to recover the Balance of Power, and to reſtore Tranquillity to Europe, by procuring an honourable and laſting Peace, and thereby a flouriſhing Trade and Proſperity to theſe Kingdoms.

Given at our Council Chamber under our Common Seal, this 12th Day of October 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Recorder and Burgeſſes of Newcaſtle under Lyme, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Baptiſt Leviſon Gower and Randle Wilbraham, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Recorder and Burgeſſes of Newcaſtle under Lyme, to his moſt ſacred Majeſty King George the Second.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

TO permit the Mayor, Bailiffs, Recorder and Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, ancient and loyal Corporation of Newcaſtle under Lyme, to congratulate you upon your ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions; and alſo to expreſs our Satisfaction and Joy upon the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Taking of Cape Breton; an Acquiſition highly valuable, as it is a Source ſo productive of Wealth to your Majeſty's Trading Subjects, and the Loſs of it ſo detrimental to our inveterate and hereditary Enemy.

As we ſhare in every Bleſſing that attends your Majeſty's Government; ſo are we affected with every Thing that can in the leaſt Degree give your Majeſty Uneaſineſs.

It is with Horror and Deteſtation, that we hear of thoſe Rebellious Attempts in Scotland, calculated to overturn, at the ſame Time, the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment of the Crown, as well as the Liberty and Religion of theſe Kingdoms: We look upon them all as connected, as inſeparable; and the ſame Providence, that has at all Times exerted its Power for the Protection and Security of the latter, will (we truſt) never ſuffer any Attack againſt the former, to go on unpuniſhed, unrevenged.

That Unanimity which has appear'd in our Country at large for your Majeſty's Service, is an Earneſt of our conſtant Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that none will be more ready and willing to hazard even our Lives and Fortunes for the Support and Preſervation of both, than the Corporation of Newcaſtle.

Given under the Common Seal of our ſaid Corporation, the 14th Day of October, in the 19th Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, High-Steward, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport in the County of Dorſet.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Bridport, beg Leave to congratulate your ſafe and ſeaſonable Arrival in theſe your Majeſty's Kingdoms.

We thankfully acknowledge your unwearied Endeavours in Support of the common Liberties of Europe, with which our own are ſo viſibly connected: But the Conqueſt of Cape Breton, by your Naval Forces, is what demands our particular Thanks to God and your Majeſty, as it may be attended with very beneficial Conſequences to the Fiſhing Trade of this Nation, on which the chief Manufacture of this Borough depends; and therefore we humbly rely on your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs for preſerving it to your Crown, if conſiſtent with the General Good.

As the Son of the Pretender has now dared, in Defiance of the Laws, to invade your Realms, and to raiſe a Rebellion againſt your Majeſty, the true Defender of our Religion, Liberties, and Properties; we ardently pray that, by the Bleſſing of God upon your Arms, he and his Adherents may ſoon receive the Puniſhment due to their Preſumption; and, for our Parts, ſhall be ready to exert our utmoſt Powers, and to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of the Borough of Stafford, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of the Borough of Stafford, in Common-Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of the Borough of Stafford, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe Arrival to theſe your Britiſh Dominions, on the happy Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Taking of Cape Breton, and likewiſe upon the ſafe Landing of your Majeſty's Troops from Abroad, not doubting, but by their Aſſiſtance, your Majeſty will be able to reſiſt all Foreign Attempts in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, and chaſtiſe the Inſolence of thoſe, who have dared to diſturb the Peace of your Majeſty's Government.

As our Liberties depend upon your Majeſty's Safety, your Majeſty may be aſſured we will, at all Times and upon all Occaſions, to the utmoſt of our Power, defend your Majeſty and your Royal Family, under whoſe Influence only we can expect to enjoy the Benefits of our happy Conſtitution.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Free Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Town of Colcheſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with moſt ſincere Congratulations on your happy Arrival in theſe Kingdoms, and on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in America; where, by the generous Efforts of a Free People, under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, a much more important Conqueſt has been made, than any your Enemies have to boaſt of.

The freſh Attempts of France, in abetting the Invaſion of this Land in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, we reject with the utmoſt Abhor-rence and Indignation; and are always ready to contribute the utmoſt in our Power to ſave our Country from Popery and Slavery, and by an inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, to ſecure to ourſelves thoſe Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt and gentle Government; and which we hope may be perpetuated to this Nation under the happy Reigns of your illuſtrious Family.

THE Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, moſt humbly approach your Royal Throne, to congratulate your Majeſty on the ſafe and happy Delivery of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, and the Addition of another Prince to your Royal Family: A moſt happy and ſeaſonable Event; as it tends, at this Time, (when the moſt daring and unnatural Attempts have been form'd, and are ſtill carrying on againſt it) to ſtrengthen and ſupport the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe; and to perpetuate to us the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your juſt and moſt gracious Adminiſtration.

Whitehall, October 30.

There are Advices from Berwick of the 25th at Night, that the Carriages which the Rebels had demanded from different Places, all came into Edinburgh upon the 22d and 23d, but were immediately diſmiſſed; and the People belonging to them were told, they ſhould have ſome Days Notice before their March to get them ready again. Upon the 22d they had a General Review between Leith and Edinburgh.

There is Advice from Berwick of the 28th of October, that upon the 26th, Glenbucket's and the Athol Men march'd to Muſſelburgh, and gave out they were to ſtay there till further Orders. The Rebels ſeemed to be packing up their Baggage upon that Day, and their Cannon, conſiſting of ſeven Pieces, were ſent to the Eaſtward. A Detachment of 5 or 600 of their Men was ſtation'd at Allaway, at a narrow Paſſage upon the Firth, where they were erecting a Battery to ſecure a Paſſage, and building flat bottom'd Boats for bringing over their Arms, &c. landed at Montroſs and Stonehaven. The Ludlow and Fox Men of War were in the Road of Leith. It was reported that the Rebels had great Differences amongſt themſelves. They had a ſmall Camp upon the Plain between Inverask and Dalkeith. Lord Loudon was at Inverneſs with a good Number of Men, and had, by thoſe Accounts, been join'd by the Sutherland People, the Monroe's, &c. The Campbells of Argyllſhire were ſaid to be in Arms for the King, and encamp'd at Inverary. Other Letters mention, that John Campbell, Eſq; Lieutenant Colonel to Lord Loudon's Highland Regiment, had, with three Companies thereof, attack'd, diſarmed, and diſperſed 700 of the Macleans, who were upon their March to join the Rebels near Edinburgh. General Blakeney and his Men, in Stirling Caſtle, were all well. Marſhal Wade was at Newcaſtle upon the 29th, with all the Troops from Doncaſter, excepting thoſe from Ireland, which are one Day's March behind. He propoſed halting at Newcaſtle a Day or two, and then to march on towards Edinburgh. The ſeven Battalions from Flanders were all ſafely arrived at Newcaſtle and Berwick, together with the ſeven Companies of Brackel's Regiment, Dutch, which had been left in Holland.
